Under the auspices of Queen Esther circle of girls of the M. E. church at Wednesday evening, 10 o'clock, an entertainment was given in the vestry of the M. E. church. The program was as follows: The following program, with Miss Olive Linton, also of Norwich, at the piano: Violin solo, "See-See" (E. C. Hamilton), Ada Raphael; Madrigal (Samsonette), Alma Fenton; Polonaise (Hoffman), Frederic Russell. This preceded an entertainment entitled "The Holidays Carnival," presented by 16 girls in costume, representing the 16 holidays in the year, beginning with New Year's day and ending with Christmas, each having a speaking part and a chorus of some familiar tune for each day, closing with a march in which their costumes were displayed effectively. Miss Jennie G. Perkins was at the piano for the chorus and march. The closing number was a Violin solo by Miss Lane Souvenir (F. Dedia). Miss Lane Souvenir responded to the encore. Mrs. R. Irving Hurlbutt is the director for Queen Esther circle and began the work of this entertainment but owing to the recent illness it has been carried to its completion by Miss Alice Satterlee.

A meeting of the Village Improvement association was held at the Country Club Monday evening, Dec. 13, 1921. Rev. Allen S. Bush presiding. Appreciation was expressed of the work done by the association in the case of the recent chimney fire, and to the highway department for improvement on the sidewalks recently done. At the close of the meeting a stereopticon lecture on the Connecticut Winter Birds, furnished by the State Audubon society, Hartford, was given. Mr. Walter H. Bushman read the lecture, which was in form of a story. Mr. Bucknigham operated the slides.
